Information for Farmers

If you have suffered losses from severe storms and flooding that began May 19, and you live or work in one of the disaster-declared counties, you may be eligible for several types of help. Call these agencies to learn more.

If you have damage to outbuildings, equipment, crops or livestock:

- Contact your local Farm Services Agency (FSA) office

If your home has been damaged:

- Call the Federal Emergency Management Agency – FEMA – at 1-800-621-FEMA (3362), 8 a.m. to 6 p.m., seven days a week, until further notice. The number for those with speech or hearing impairment is TTY 1-800-462-7585

If you are uncertain about where to call or have other needs:

- Call the Wisconsin Farm Center hotline at 1-800-942-2474, 7:45 a.m. to 4:30 p.m., weekdays

Please remember that not all counties are eligible for aid, that aid for farm losses is generally in the form of low-interest loans rather than grants, and that crop losses cannot be calculated until harvest.

Disaster recovery assistance is available to any individual without regard to race, color, sex, religion, national origin, age, disability or economic status. If you or someone you know has been discriminated against, you should call FEMA at 1-800-621-FEMA (3362) (TTY 1-800-462-7585) or contact your State Office of Equal Rights.
